SESSION 1 - complacency free

good to read the whole letter at this point;

. fulfilling the last instruction in chap. 5 verse 27

'I charge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers'

Initial comments: suggested summary

- chapter 1 (see also Acts 17) = writers (Paul, Silas and Timothy) and recipients of letter first contact
- chapter 2 = the way the writers worked among them and their separation
- chapter 3 = reasons for Timothy's visit and his good report
 - . question: how do you think the Thessalonians would have felt after reading this? (Yes, well pleased!!!)
- final chapters, 4 & 5: 35 instructions coming from not frustration but satisfaction inviting further progress

re read 1 Thessalonians 4 verses 1 and 2

to start: (note; questions in bold and [suggested answers in italics])

- what could these verses be called ? [bridge / transition verses]
- 'brothers' ?
[commentators suggest it is a generic word meaning both genders; see Acts 17/4 and 1 Thes.1/1]
- what is the instruction here ?
[. End of v.1; 'Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more'
. 'to do this = ? [to please God']]
- 'more and more' = [no complacency]

suggested points of discussion if necessary

- . 'we instructed you' ?
[instructions needed, knowing what to do does not come automatically]
- . 'as in fact you are living'?
[instructions need to be lived out, confirms sense of satisfaction, not just with men but God although not always the case; see 1 Cor.3/1, Heb.5/11-14]
- . 'to do this (pleasing God) more and more'?
[satisfaction yes! but not complacency, scope for progress to be made]
- . 'you know'?
[some instructions could be only a reminder, they already knew]
- . 'by the authority of the Lord Jesus'?
[some are commissioned by Jesus to instruct others, it is their service/'ministry']
